

PAC

PARENTS AND COMMUNITY FOR FREMONT

The number one reason we bought our house in this neighborhood was to send our children to John C. Fremont Elementary. Our 2nd grader, Willa, was just starting pre-school at the time, but we knew of the school's reputation, and it gave us great peace of mind to know that her future was secure here. It's why we volunteer our time, it's why we contribute our money. This school is a good place, built by caring parents and committed educators; and we accept our role in helping keep the wind in its sails for a steady course ahead by contributing to the PAC Annual Campaign.

In these tough economic times, there are many reasons not to write a check to the PAC Annual Campaign:

1. Do I need to pay PAC to provide a fantastic choral program my child loves? If I want to pay so young people can lift their voices together in song, I can download the Jonas Brothers for 99 cents.
2. PAC buys new and interesting books for the school library? Buying books? Don't we have libraries for that?
3. Buried beneath Ms. Walley's desk is a glowing treasure trove of gold bullion, cash, and rare paintings. Right? Let's go dig it up! Who's with us?
4. This whole "computer craze" will not last—despite PAC's insistence on buying new ones for our children to learn on.
5. PAC uses donor money to buy copiers and printers. Really? Huh. Didn't they just come with the school, like when you rent an apartment and it comes with a free refrigerator and stove?

Money is hard to give away, because money is awesome, but so are our kids, so is our school, and so is our future together. We are grateful to everyone who makes our school strong, including PAC.
